Ref: MS/Bdrs/2021-22

Date: March 09, 2021

Dear Parents

It gives me pleasure to acknowledge your goodwill and cooperation which is evident in the growth of the school year after year.

I'm taking this opportunity to interact with you on behalf of the school. Interaction with the parents and the students is the best form of feedback and suggestions for the progress of any institution.

I am pleased to intimate you that the admission process for the forthcoming academic session i.e. 2021-22 has commenced and the entrance examination is scheduled to be held on campus on the following date:

20th March 2021 at 0930 hrs. (Saturday)

I am pleased to share that preference is given to old students and existing parents for the new admissions to strengthen the bond between them. You are advised to kindly let us know about your recommendations for admissions timely to avoid any inconvenience later. Some of the advantages extended to the members of MOSS are highlighted below: Alumni's (MOSS) children will be given a yearly fee concession of @10% in Boarding fee only (restricting to only one child per Alumni). However, the concession will continue in succeeding years if he/she secure more than 60% marks in the annual exam. For details you may contact the school's office and also refer to the following link:

You are advised to guide and encourage your ward(s) to speak in English and adhere to the rules and regulations as promulgated by the school, in particular, they must follow the dress code and come to school with proper haircut. Also, they must be on time after outing/vacation.

Annual Examinations for the session 2020-21 for classes Pre-School to IX and XI will be conclude on 24 March 2021 by 1200 noon. This year, students of Classes IX & XI will not be allowed to leave the campus, rather they will be staying with us and will be attending classes for X & XII. The results for boarders will be declared at 0900 hrs. on 31st March 2021 (Wednesday) followed by the issue of books and stationery. I request you all to extend your co-operation and send the students to the school as per schedule. Classes for Pre-School to VIII will commence as per the guidelines issued by the DOE. The classes for grades IX to XII will also commence w.e.f. 1st April 2021. The students those who have not reported, must join the school on time as intimated earlier vide school letter dated 09 March 2021 regarding provisional admission to Class XI.
